STREET CAR DAY

Woman's Union Benevolent Society Announces Names of

CONDUCTORS AND CHAPERONS

WHO WILL "MAN" THE CARS ON THURSDAY FOR "SWEET CHARITY'S" SAKE—A NOVEL IDEA IN THE NAMING OF SOME OF THE CARS—EACH CAR WILL HAVE A CHAPERON AND TWO WOMAN CONDUCTORS—LIST OF THOSE WHO ARE TO SERVE.

The Women's Union Benevolent Society has completed all of the arrangements for "Street Car Day" on next Thursday, when the passenger traffic service of the Wheeling Railway Company will have its annual turning over into the charge of the ladies for Sweet Charity's sake. Every indication is for the repetition of the success achieved last year.

A happy idea was decided upon—that of naming the cars after the war heroes and war vessels, a few local lights being recognized. As will be seen, the first two cars are named after English John S. Doddridge, of this city, and English Blakely, recently instructor at the Linsly Institute. The list is as follows: Doddridge, Blakely, Sampson, Schley, Merritt, Maine, Merrimack, Fitzhugh Lee, Hobson, Sigbee, Army and Navy, Uncle Sam, McKinley, Manila, Shirley, Harrison, Shafter, Oregon, "Joe" Wheeler, Watson, Clara Barton, Vesuvius, Dewey.

The cars will be in charge of two conductors and a chaperone, and will be run from 8 o'clock in the morning until late at night, for "sweet charity's" sake, and last year's success is likely to be duplicated.

The committees in charge of the affair and the chaperons and conductors assigned, are as follows:

Officers of society—Mrs. A. W. Kelly, president; Mrs. W. J. W. Cowden, secretary; Miss M. C. Wilson, treasurer. Committee of arrangements—Mrs. W. F. Butler, chairman; Mrs. W. J. W. Cowden, Mrs. L. J. Bayha, Mrs. A. W. Kelly, Mrs. Freese, Miss M. C. Wilson, Miss Mary Vance.

Committee at barn—Miss Mary Vance, Mrs. W. F. Butler, Mrs. W. J. W. Cowden.

Committee at Main street office—Mrs. A. W. Kelly, Mrs. L. J. Bayha, Mrs. A. M. Stevenson, Mrs. Jas. Rhodes.

Refreshment committee—Miss M. C. Wilson, chairman; Miss Bates, the Misses Klieves, Miss Zoe McClure, Mrs. J. L. Dicke, Mrs. Robert Dalzell, Mrs. Freese, Mrs. Carnahan. This committee will serve cake and ice at Mrs. Ziegenfeller's during the evening.

Chaperons and conductors serving on any of the three lines will leave Main or Market street at the following hours: Morning run, 7:40 o'clock; afternoon run, 11:45 a. m.; evening run, 5 o'clock. Caps for conductors and badges for chaperons will be distributed by the committee at the place of starting.

The chaperons and conductors are assigned as follows:

"Your Money Back"

IF YOU WANT IT.

This means: You come in, try on, get fitted and suited, and buy whatever you like; go home and change your mind—no matter what reason—your mother-in-law don't like 'em, for instance—come back for your money. We take our chances. What are they? Generally if you're properly fitted and suited you stick to your clothes; if not properly suited we don't want you to wear around a bad advertisement. Once in a while we lose a trifle. We gain a hundred times where we lose once. Gain what? and lose what? A sale. Because we put our customer's interest first. The firm that don't give satisfaction, don't dare guarantee satisfaction.
